Basic Information: Datastream is a global financial database which contains current and historical data on stocks, indices, bonds, funds, futures, options, interest rates, commodities, and economic indicators.

Access Instructions: Datastream is accessible only on a specific terminal on the 5th Floor of Bobst Library. Inquire at the Research Commons Reference Office on the 5th Floor of Bobst Library for directions.

More Information: Visit the guide at https://guides.nyu.edu/datastreamguide. Any questions about Datastream should be directed to lib-business@nyu.edu.